

Lower School Counseling

- Classroom guidance lessons are designed to support and facilitate student learning in an area that the teacher sees a need for a particular group of students.
- Career counseling occurs throughout the year focusing on different career paths each month.
- Individual counseling is available upon referral or on an as needed basis.
- Small group counseling is conducted on an as needed basis.
- More services will be enlisted as the program grows and develops.