Please discuss the following questions in at least three paragraphs each, typed and submitted by due date:

Question 1. Talk about the peculiar children. Which of their oddities and personalities do you find most intriguing? Compare them to children from stories we read during the school year.

Question 2. In what way can this book be seen as a classic quest story- a young hero who undertakes a difficult journey and is transformed in the process? Do you see parallels with other fantasy works involving young people?

3. Pick two current events. Type (in MLA style) a three paragraph essay about each event and submit.

4. Read your book (9th grade reading level) for the Reading Fair this year. Your book may not be the other summer reading book. Write a one page biography on the author. Submit by the due date on Google Classroom. Complete AR quiz by due date.
